LODGE BULLETIN

April 2018

The Master's Message

Greetings, Brethren:

We start this month's activities with a fraternal visit to Federal Lodge No. 1 in Washington, D.C. on Monday, April 9. It would be nice to have you join me and the officers of the lodge in this fraternal visit. We have an historical bond with this lodge for 225 years since our participation with the cornerstone ceremony of the U.S. Capitol in 1793. Illustrious Brother George Washington with Alexandria Lodge No. 22, Federal Lodge No. 1 and Potomac Lodge No. 5, laid the cornerstone for this edifice of the New Republic and Democracy on September 18, 1793. While we will not endeavor like we did 25 years ago with a massive reenactment, we will acknowledge and celebrate the 225th anniversary later this year with a dinner and with keynote speaker(s).

The program for our Stated Communication will inform and hopefully enlighten those attending with a play or narrative on the history and formation of the George Washington Masonic National Memorial. After we suffered another devastating fire in 1871, our lodge played an integral role in creating a fire proof edifice to protect our history with and relics of George Washington.

Earlier this year our Senior Deacon, Brother James Wenzel, informed me his work commitments and travel had changed significantly and he was concerned he could no longer fulfill his duties of the lodge. After time and reflection he decided he needed to resign. Our Stewards, Brothers Nana Gyesie and Richard Salazar were transferred out of State and Country respectively and likewise had to resign. We wish these Brethren success and fulfillment in all their future work and masonic endeavors.

NOTIFICATION: With the Senior Deacon, Senior Steward and Junior Steward resignations, we will be holding elections for the Senior and Junior Deacons at our May Stated Communication. The installation ceremony of their respective offices will immediately follow thereafter.

Sincerely and fraternally,

Mark W. Underwood, PDDGM
Master

From the Secretary's Desk –

As Secretary, it is my responsibility to collect the dues owed to the Lodge, so I must keep talking about this issue every month. We are now into the fourth month of the 2018 masonic year and we still have 33 members who have not paid their 2018 dues. Included in that number, 7 of the members owe both 2017 and 2018 due. Dues must be paid by January 1st to be considered in good standing for the year. For the 7 that owe two years dues, I have unfortunately had to start the process of suspension for non-payment of dues.

You can pay your dues through the Lodge Web site at <http://aw22.org> by using a credit card and PayPal. If you decide to pay by sending the funds to the Secretary, you must pay by personal check or by Money Order. Federal Regulations do not allow you to pay dues with a company or business check. They must be paid with personal funds.

We still have members for which I do not have a good mailing address. If you have changed your mailing address recently, please call or send me an email message so the records can be updated.

Our guest and noted masonic speaker on March 8 was Brother “Chuck” Dunning. His presentation was appreciated and well received by AW22.

Brother C.R. “Chuck” Dunning, Jr is the author of Contemplative Masonry: Basic Applications of Mindfulness, Meditation, and Imagery for the Craft. He has been a Master Mason since 1988. His mother lodge is Haltom City-Riverside #1331, in Haltom City, Texas, and he is also a member of Albert Pike #162 in Guthrie, Oklahoma. Chuck is a Full Member of the Texas Lodge of Research, and belongs to a number of other Masonic research societies. In the Scottish Rite, Chuck is a Knight Commander of the Court of Honor, Director of Education for the Guthrie Valley in Oklahoma, and a Class Director for the Fort Worth Valley in Texas. In 2012 he became the founding Superintendent of the Academy of Reflection, which is a chartered organization for Scottish Rite Masons wanting to integrate contemplative practice with their Masonic experience. He is a member of the Society for Contemplative Mind in Higher Education, and has been engaged in various forms of contemplative practice for over three decades. In his career in higher education and mental health, in Masonry, and with other groups and individuals, he facilitates and teaches mindfulness, meditation, and imagery to enhance peoples’ experiences of life in many ways. Chuck holds a master’s degree in counselor education and a bachelor’s degree in psychology, both from the University of North Texas.
