LODGE BULLETIN

August 2018

The Master's Message

Greetings, Brethren:

The Grand Master's One Day Conferral will take place at the Scottish Rite Temple, 1430 W Braddock Rd, Alexandria, on Saturday, August 4. All three degrees will be conferred by brethren from all over Northern Virginia. Eighty candidates are scheduled to receive the degrees.

Our stated communication is on Thursday, August 9, and an interesting and informative evening is planned with Right Worshipful Rhey Maurice Solomon, PDDGM, who will be presenting a program about "Myths, Lies and Misperceptions of Freemasonry". This program will provide food for thought on many of the topics you may be or will be discussing with neophytes or your brethren. Attend Lodge and learn!

Tuesday, August 14, will mark our first fraternal visit to Henry Knox Field – John Blair Lodge since their consolidation last year. Join me in visiting with our neighbors and District 1A brethren for what promises to be an enjoyable evening of fellowship.

We have three called communications this month. Thursday, August 16, we will open an EA Lodge for the purpose of catechism returns, and afterwards we need to have a MM practice (first section). Thursday, August 23, we will open a FC Lodge for degree work and catechism returns. Saturday, August 25, we will raise three of our brethren to the Sublime Degree of Master Mason.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT:

On August 18, from 2-5 PM, at Bowl America, 6450 Edsall Road, Alexandria, we will join with the other lodges for a District 1A event of fun, food and bowling. "Bowling for MAHOVA" is to raise money for the Masonic Home of Virginia and to enjoy time with each other and our families and friends. A suggested donation of $40 per person will offset expenses for bowling and our "Masonic Beam" donation we gave to our Grand Lodge. Donations and registration can be made by using PayPal at <https://www.paypal.me/AlexWash22/41.44> or by contacting me at master@aw22.org.

Sincerely and fraternally,

Mark W. Underwood, PDDGM
Master

The Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Virginia has established a policy on the use of the Internet as follows:

The Grand Lodge of Virginia recognizes the prevalence of the Internet, its value and importance to the Craft. It also recognizes the usefulness of Lodge websites and social media platforms to support various aspects of their operations both internally and externally. To support Lodges in proper and reasonable use of the Internet, social media and websites, the Grand Lodge of Virginia established the following Policy to guide subordinate Lodges (“Lodges”) in the development of websites, use of social media, devices, Masonic logos, storage of and transmission of electronic data and all forms of communications via electronic media. It also provides guidance for individual and Lodge engagement with the media (both traditional and “new”) and provides guidance for the individual Brother’s actions with electronic communication and social media. In all cases, this Policy affixes accountability and responsibility for the Lodge and the individual Mason not only regarding policy and procedure but Masonic conduct as well, and must therefore, not be taken lightly or in any manner be disregarded.

The Social Media, Public Relations and Information Technology Policy is at: www.policy.grandlodgeofvirginia.org Our Worshipful Master is requiring all Lodge members to review the policy and become cognizant of its content if you have not already done so.

WE NEED YOUR EMAIL ADDRESS–PLEASE TAKE A MOMENT AND SEND YOUR EMAIL ADDRESS TO SECRETARY@AW22.ORG

Sincerely and fraternally,
