

Alexandria-Washington Lodge No. 22

April 1976

FROM THE EAST

Brethren,

As the year progresses our activities as a Masonic Family continue to increase. The January Spaghetti Dinner was a great success and the response to the March Ham Dinner was tremendous. Due to this favorable response we are making these dinners a regular part of our Lodge activities.

Be sure to mark August 17th on your calendar. As part of the American Bi-Centennial Celebration, your Lodge has reserved the Little Theater of Alexandria for a performance of "1776". Tickets are available from the Officers at five dollars each. Refreshments will be served at intermission.

All Brethren, their ladies and guests are urged to attend the Grand Master's Reception at 7:30 PM, April 21st in the Scottish Rite Temple on Braddock Road. There will be a minimum of introductions so everyone can enjoy the entertainment and have a chance to meet the Grand Master.

The William Hiram Wood Masonic School will be held nightly, April 26-29, at Mt. Vernon Lodge No. 219. This school is open to all Brethren and is an excellent opportunity to learn the ritual.

Remember Brethren, attend your Lodge whenever possible and always display the teachings of Free-masonry in your daily lives.

Sincerely and fraternally,
James B. Stone
Worshipful Master

Brown, who agreeably to the notification of the Secretary, should have furnished refreshments for the evening, has declined to do so! Resolved, that the Stewards be, and they are hereby requested to have refreshments procured from Bro. James English, the expense of which the Treasurer is hereby requested to pay and charge the amount thereof to the debt of Bro. Brown, and in the event of his refusing to pay the same, the Treasurer will report to the next meeting the reason Bro. Brown may give for not doing so."

FROM THE "LODGE OF WASHINGTON"

Robert Adam, son of Rev. John Adam, D.D., and Janet Campbell, of Kilbride, Scotland, was born May 4, 1731. Emigrated to America in 1753, and after a short residence at Annapolis, Maryland, established himself at a pleasant country residence in Fairfax County, Va., about four miles from Alexandria. He was a gentleman of refined taste, cultivation and wealth, and interested himself in everything that could promote the prosperity of his adopted home. He was instrumental in establishing several useful manufactures, some of which are still in existence (1875). On the organization of this Lodge in 1783, of which he was the founder and ruling spirit, he became its Master, and now his death is first recorded. He died at his residence in Fairfax County, March 27, 1789, in the fifty-eighth year of his age. His son, John Adam, Esq., an estimable gentleman, born in Fairfax County, in 1781, died in Alexandria, in 1843, leaving two children, Miss Eliza C. Adam and Dr. T. J. Adam.
