April 1977

FROM THE EAST

Brethren,

It sure doesn't seem possible, but this old year of 1977 is one quarter gone. I thought each of the previous months were busy, but April, from the looks of things, April will top them all.

Take note of another added attraction, the visiting Lodges. If you have never been to another Grand Lodge Jurisdiction to visit, there is no better way than to have them come to you. Come out and visit and enjoy yourself.

April 16th & 17th, the Officers and their wives will journey to Philadelphia for Ladies Night of Wm. L. Elkins Lodge #646, an annual event.

April 14th, will be Demolay Night, with our Chapter putting on the Demolay Degree. A dinner will precede the meeting. Dinner at 6:00pm. Y'all come!

Brethren, the attendance of both our Stated and Called Communications have been just great, however there are a lot of faces that we have not seen in many a moon. I know you didn't pay all that money just for a piece of paper measuring 2½ x 3½ inches. This is your Lodge, enjoy it, I am. Come to Lodge, you may see some old friends of long past.

Sincerely and fraternally,

Worshipful Master
