LODGE BULLETIN
FEBRUARY 2012

TO THE BRETHREN

February is shaping up to be a very busy and exciting month for our Lodge. I look forward to seeing you all in Lodge at some or all of these special events.

At our stated communication for the month of February, we are honored to receive M.: W.: William Talbott Ellison Jr., Grand Master of Masons in Virginia. This will be M.: W.: Ellison's official visit to our Lodge, with a special meal prepared by our Senior Warden at the festive board after the meeting. Reservations are required for this event, and may be sent to our Stewards at reservations@aw22.org. As always, all Master Masons in good standing are welcome at our meetings and festive board. Because of the special nature of this event, and the meal being prepared, we are asking that non-members of our Lodge provide a nominal donation for their meal along with their reservation. The donation can be made on our Lodge website or in person at the festive board.

In January we raised one worthy brother to the Sublime Degree of Master Mason; this month we will also have a called communication for work in the degrees. All brethren are encouraged to attend this important event. As usual, we will hold a rehearsal the Sunday preceding the degree at 7:00pm, and I encourage anyone interested in learning ritual, or becoming more involved in the degrees to attend this meeting as well.

Later in the month we will celebrate the birth of our Past Master and President, General George Washington. The celebration will begin with a called communication in our Lodge, featuring a special program to honor Washington's memory as a man and Mason, followed the next morning by our traditional wreath-laying at Mount Vernon. This year we will gather in the traffic circle at 8:45am, where we will board the Mount Vernon shuttle to the tomb for the ceremony. A reception will follow directly after the ceremony in the Administration Building of Mount Vernon.

The remainder of that day will be sponsored by the George Washington Masonic Memorial. A public symposium will be held from 1:00pm – 3:00pm at the Memorial, followed by a black/white tie gala event at 6:00pm. Pre-purchased tickets are required to attend the Gala Banquet, and can be obtained through the Memorial website at <http://gwmemorial.org/birthday-celebration-2012.php> or by calling Special Events Coordinator Radka Mavrova at (703) 683-2007.

Fraternally,
