LODGE BULLETIN
JANUARY 2012

TO THE BRETHREN

Brethren, I am honored that you selected me to be Master of this Lodge, and I look forward to seeing each of you in Lodge. This year we will continue our practice of formality and dignity in the Lodge room, followed by a Festive Board with fine food and fellowship. I encourage each of you to participate in Lodge discussions, as well as in the fellowship of the Festive Board. Toasts can be proposed by any brother present to add to the festive atmosphere; as they say, the more the merrier!

As several members have informed me that they are not able to eat dinner as late in the evening as our Festive Board, this year I have instructed the Stewards to also prepare refreshment for before the meeting. This will not be a full meal, and will not replace the Festive Board, but is intended to provide refreshment for those that are unable to stay.

2012 is shaping up to be a productive and exciting year for Alexandria-Washington Lodge No. 22, with several inspiring Masonic authors and interesting programs. We are getting off to a great start with the official reception of our District Deputy Grand Master, Rt. Wor.: Robert George Watkins Jr, at our first stated communication on January 12th. On January 24th, we will have a called communication to work in the degrees. Called communications this year will be, for the most part, on Tuesday evenings at 1900, with a Lodge ritual school the preceding Sunday at 1900.

As always, please notify our Stewards at reservations@aw22.org if you plan to attend, so that we can have the appropriate amount of food available. As we continue to be good stewards of the Lodge's money it is important that we have an accurate headcount so that we are able to feed everyone present, while not wasting money on uneaten food.

Fraternally,
