

ALEXANDRIA-WASHINGTON LODGE N° 22
ANCIENT FREE AND ACCEPTED MASONS

LODGE BULLETIN
MARCH 2010

TO THE BRETHREN

We have made some changes in our March schedule that you should note. Due to the snow storms, we were unable to have the official visit of our District Deputy Grand Master, Rt. Worshipful Michael R. Aulicino last month. We have requested dispensation, and Rt. Wor. Bro. Aulicino has graciously agreed to allow us to move our stated communication back one week in order to receive him. He has done a great job as DDGM this year, and I hope all of you will find it within the length of your cable tow to attend his official visit. As per our original plan, we will take dinner at Theismann's after the meeting.

We will continue with our programme for the month as a called communication, and we are pleased to welcome Wor. Bro. Mark Tabbert to speak on the topic of 'The Two Paths In Masonry'. Mark is an engaging speaker with a vast amount of knowledge on the Craft, and the evening will be further enhanced by a visit from a delegation from the Grand Lodge Alpina of Switzerland, accompanied by our own Grand Master, Most Worshipful William E. Rorer, Jr. A Festive Board will follow the meeting, and as always, please let us know if you will be joining us by sending an e-mail to reservations@aw22.org.

Two other called communications will take place in March, one for work in the degrees and one for a Lodge of Instruction. The latter is a standard traditional form of educating brothers about the Craft. You will note that we open Lodges on the first and second degree of Masonry for 'work and instruction'; in this case we will be opening a Lodge on the first degree of Masonry, and invite all Entered Apprentices and Fellow Crafts to join us to discuss any points of interest or questions we might have about the Craft.

Many of us came into the Craft in a whirl, with a short period of time between degrees and no real time to understand some of the finer points of what was happening to us and why. The Lodge of Instruction is a chance to ask some of the questions that may have been in your mind for some time, and see if we can work together as brothers to answer them.

Two final points of importance: The Division Leadership Conference will take place on Saturday, March 20, at the Scottish Rite Temple on Braddock Road. Registration begins at 8:30 AM, and officers are requested to attend. The District Ritual School will take place on March 22 at 7:00 PM, also at the Scottish Rite Temple.

Fraternally,
Andrew Hammer
