LODGE BULLETIN
SEPTEMBER 2012

TO THE BRETHREN

My Brethren, I would like to express my thanks to those of you who came out and enjoyed a fabulous Ladies' Night on September 1st. This month our degree work will be held on Thursday, September 27th, and for our stated communication on September 13th, we will hear our Senior Warden's plans for next year. Please see his message below.

My Brethren. Won't you please join us for our Stated Communication on the 13th of September where I will share with you my vision and plans for the upcoming Masonic year. These past few years have seen a great deal of change in the Lodge. We have succeeded in bringing the quality of our ritual and speakers to all time heights. However, one very important challenge remains: we have failed on many occasions to turn out a significant number of the members of Alexandria-Washington Lodge No. 22 to enjoy the fruits of our Masonic labor.

One of the things that makes Masonry special is our devotion to and veneration of a more traditional way of doing things. As we work to improve the quality of the Lodge experience, we should be particularly mindful of those portions of our tradition that we should be celebrating.

I have a vision for a Lodge which balances the old and new, the traditional and the cutting edge. All of my ideas, Brothers, start with you. If you do not attend, if you do not support the Lodge, if you do not support the Officers of the Lodge with your attendance, no change is possible. Won't you take the first step by joining us on the 13th and considering some of my ideas?

Josh Adler, Senior Warden

Fraternally,

Michael L. Bailey
Master
