The Master's Message

Fraternal Greetings My Brethren,

Thank you to all those who were able to enjoy our virtual birthday celebrations honoring our own Illustrious Brother Washington. For those who might have missed the events they are available on our Facebook and YouTube pages. Have you taken a moment to review our new digital presence? During this period of social distancing, it is important for every member of the Craft to look closely at the tools they have at their disposal, and while they may not be the tools so often mentioned in our ritual, they cannot be overlooked, especially now. The road through our quarries is never without trials and tribulations and COVID-19 has sparked a bolder use of the keyboard and mouse alongside the square and compass. Your officers have been working diligently to produce educational and social events through digital means, and while we all pray that this pandemic will be over soon, we cannot ignore the reach a service like zoom provides in reconnecting us with members who cannot regularly attend lodge functions.

Due to a conflict, we will have to postpone our next edition of the Morgan Affair program until April. In the meantime, our Pre-Stated zoom will include a walkthrough of our newly designed website. Those who are able to participate will be the first members to see our new website take shape. We hope you are all as excited as we are to see this new piece of our Lodge history take shape.

With the Governor extending the 10-person maximum for the next two months, I must continue to request that our members DO NOT attend our monthly Stated in person but rather join us for our Zoom meeting starting at 7:30 pm est.

From the Secretary's Desk

Brethren—

We are now in the third month of the year and a few of you still owe dues. I will be sending reminder notices. Please pay your dues. Also, remember to update the secretary with any contact information changes, including mailing address, email, and telephone numbers.

At the February Stated Communication I shared some of the Lodge minutes from 110 years ago. Notable, among other things, in those minutes was a visit from the Brethren of Liberty Lodge in Massachusetts. At the George Washington Birthday Stated we participated in Constitution Lodge of Beverly, England's, America Night. The fraternal links among our Lodges date to 1891. Bro. R.W. Padgett, a member of Constitution Lodge and a seagoing ship's captain, found himself detained in Boston awaiting freight. He and another detained captain, another Mason, learned that it was the day of the Masonic Lodge meeting in Beverly, Massachusetts. From that lodge visit, the initial bonds were formed. A Past Master of Liberty, Wor. Bro. Charles Woodberry extended the link to Alexandria-Washington Lodge, noting that Beverley, England, home of Constitution, was near George Washington's ancestral home at Sulgrave Manor.

Each of the Lodges' minutes note various references to fraternal Masonic links forged in the early 1890s. Visits between individual members increased and many gifts were exchanged between the lodges. More formal exchange visits commenced in 1972 and for the next four decades a three-year exchange visit took place. After a brief respite, 2019 marked the return to tradition and the rekindling of friendships among the three lodges. Next year, we are scheduled to visit Constitution Lodge and planning with both Liberty and Constitution will begin soon!

These relationships are endearing, but they require work. The Fraternal Relations Committee was revived in 2017 to ensure that AW22 reinvigorates old relationships and works on building more and greater bonds locally and around the world. The work of this committee needs assistance from the next generation of Masons. To keep our relationships strong, we must introduce each generation and assist them in exuding the fraternity we all hold dear. If you are interested in supporting the work of this important committee, please reach out to Rt. Wor. Mike Bible, the Committee's Chair.

Sincerely & Fraternaly,

Daniel E. Froggett, PM.
