The Master's Message

Fraternal Greetings Brethren,

As many of you already know, COVID-19 safety restrictions have been reduced considerably, and we no longer have to wear masks during lodge. The details and current restrictions can be found in the Grand Master's Message sent out from our secretary a few weeks ago. We hope that we will see you in lodge this month for some much-needed camaraderie.

We are excited to see the return of our Saint John's Table lodge this month on Thursday, June 24 at Gadsby's Tavern. Tickets are $55.00 and going fast, so please see our secretary to make a reservation or email reservations@aw22.org to save your spot. Tickets can be paid for by cash or check to the treasurer at the June Stated, or by PayPal on our website. If you do not see the PayPal option for the Table Lodge yet, please be patient, it will be up soon.

We're excited to see the return of degree work in the lodge. Our practices have restarted and all those brethren who want to hone their ritual skills are welcome to join us at the Memorial on the 3rd and 4th Thursdays of the month for ritual practice.

We hope to see you in lodge soon Brethren.

From the Secretary's Desk

Brethren—

There are still a few of you who have not paid dues. Please, make haste. Remember, any time you have a change in contact information, the secretary needs to know. Telephone, email, and especially mailing address changes should be sent to secretary@aw22.org.

Degree work will continue throughout the Summer and we will need folks to fill every role in the second section of the Master Mason's Degree. Our Lodge has many resources to assist you in developing your Ritual proficiency. Right Worshipful King is the Deputy Grand Lecturer. Worshipful Huff, Brother Dantev, and I are all proficient in the second section. Many of you know at least one role, but you should challenge yourself to know more. You should also find another Master Mason to mentor, ensuring there is always a backup for every position.

Continuing on the thought of Ritual proficiency, we understand that the Reid J. Simmons Academy will be held in Roanoke in August. Our Lodge is a supporter of this event and everyone is invited to attend. If you are only an observer, watching the process of learning a lecture and attaining a certificate is informative and impressive. More information will be passed on when we receive it.

Welcome to Summer! Remember, Father's Day is June 20. Our gift shop has many great gifts that would be fantastic for Dad! A George Washington pen knife, the US Capitol Trowel, an array of neck ties...support the Lodge and the Memorial by shopping AW!

Sincerely & Fraternaly,

Daniel E. Froggett, PM.
