The Master's Message

Fraternal Greetings Brethren,

It is that time of year when the officers of the lodge begin to step up and practice the upcoming rolls they may occupy for the next year. Preparation is key to the success of any plan or program in and outside of Masonry. Are you interested in helping the lodge? Is there a role in a degree that piques your interest, or committee that you would like to be a part of? Now is the time to speak up and express your interest in lodge programs.

I am excited to see that a great number of you have signed up for our stated communication this month on the grounds of Mount Vernon. It is looking to be a very memorable moment for all of those in attendance. Reservations have been closed to the event and if you have already reserved a ticket, please see the Secretary's most recent email regarding meal choices. Your timely correspondence is much appreciated.

If within the length of your cable to, please come to the memorial on the evenings of September 11th to share in the hospitality of Alexandria-Washington lodge and Andrew Jackson lodge. Worshipful Rick Cady & I have put this little event together to celebrate the installation of our officers. since we were unable to do so late last year due to COVID-19 restrictions. Your RSVP to the event is requested to reservations@aw22.org to help plan with the caterer.

Looking forward to seeing you all soon.

Sincerely & Fraternaly,

From the Secretary's Desk

Brethren—

There are still a few of you who have not paid dues. Please, make haste. Remember, any time you have a change in contact information, the secretary needs to know. Telephone, email, and especially mailing address changes should be sent to secretary@aw22.org.

We again appeal to you all to volunteer as catechism instructors and mentors to our new Masons. We are about to initiate more men into the mysteries and their experiences will be most beneficial to them if they have a guide. I remember learning at the knee of Right Worshipful Frank Dunaway and later Worshipful Josh Adler. I treasure the insight and guidance these men gave me as I learned my catechisms. Bonds were formed during those sessions that shaped me as a Mason. I encourage you all to consider how you can assist in shaping the future of Alexandria – Washington Lodge and Virginia Freemasonry by simply being an instructor for our candidates.

Later this month, we will begin preparing dues notices. Dues are to be paid in full before the beginning of each year. Those who have dues in arrears are subject to suspension. As it is my first year as Secretary, I did not submit anyone for failure to pay dues to the Grand Lodge this year. The Lodge will assist where it can if you are in financial straits, but we cannot assist if you do not ask for assistance. Please budget to pay your dues, which will be approximately $220 for 2022.

Volunteer to teach a candidate. Prepare to pay your dues. AND, above all, remain connected and engaged with YOUR Lodge. It's a lot more meaningful to all of us if there are more perspectives, opinions, ideas, questions, and brothers with whom to gather together in unity.

Sincerely & Fraternally,

Daniel E. Froggett, PM.
